

Fantasia Fair is a nine day vacation and living experience for crossdressers, transsexuals, their families and friends. It is held in Provincetown, Massachusetts at the tip of historic and beautiful Cape Cod in a friendly, secure, and caring environment. You need not fret about your ability to pass. Veteran fairgoers will make you feel comfortable, and there will be consultants available to help you with your comportment, etc.

Fantasia Fair is sponsored by The Outreach Institute. The Institute is a non-profit organization providing educational services to the CD/TS Community, and to the helping medical and psychological professions. The net proceeds from Fantasia Fair are used to finance Outreach's educational programs, and to help improve the quality of professional counseling.

PROVINCETOWN

Provincetown is a combination fishing village-artist colony-tourist town with a unique live-and-let-live attitude. The Fair participants are free to wander about enjoying the magnificent Cape Cod scenery, many fascinating shops and fine restaurants, and to visit the museums.

POLICE

The Provincetown Police Department is one of the most professional departments in Massachusetts, and have over the years done a consistently outstanding job keeping the Fair safe and enjoyable for all.
