

F E M M E F A R E

SUPPLEMENT TO TUESDAY NEWSLETTER

It was not possible to complete the Tuesday newsletter in time to meet the mimeographer's deadline. The following information was supposed to be in it, and some of this pertains to today--Tuesday, October 16. The newsletter for Wednesday will be distributed at the regular time.

Hostesses

Jarah needs 4 girls to serve as hostesses at the Symposium and 4 to hostess at the Town & Gown Supper. Please see her at Gifford House at noon today or tomorrow

Variety Show

Variety show rehearsals will continue this week from 10 to 12 AM in the Back Room of the Crown & Anchor. If you have a schedule conflict, see Delores in the Back Room during this time or contact her in her room at 105 in the Crown & Anchor.

Photo Album

Anyone interested in modeling for the Fan/Fair Album please contact Grace Bacon at Apt. 2, Hargood House

Foundation Garments

Those interested in foundation garments and bathing suits may visit Gladys Talbot in her suite #206 in the Crown & Anchor. She opens at 10 AM each day and has no definite closing time. You may make appointments, but you should consult with her first to determine how much time you will need.

Pajama Party

The oldest floating pajama party in town resumes tonight and throughout the Fair at Crown & Anchor, Room 114 after the bars close. BYOB, setups available. Betty Ann, Glenda, and Michelle hope y'all come.

Seminar Schedule

The complete seminar schedule is given here for your convenience in planning. Those wishing to attend should see Diane B., our registrar at Gifford House. Please arrive promptly to the seminars at the designated times. All seminars take place at Gifford House.

Tuesday, Oct. 16	Masc./Fem./Andr.	1:00 PM
Wednesday, Oct. 17	Be yourself in public	1:00 PM
Thursday, Oct. 18	Medical aspects	12:30 PM
Friday, Oct. 19	Legal Aspects	1:00 PM
Saturday, Oct 20	Career Planning	11:30 AM

Hair & Wig Consultant

Ms. Connie Thomas has been stricken with an illness and will not be available to service your wigs, hair and other practical femme needs today. she is currently resting in the local clinic and will probably be back with us on Thursday. Connie, please get well.

