Dear Lou,

Enclosed is another one next photo for you. Also the NY Times bio-obit of Harry Benjamin and a new look perhaps of interest to you. If it is, I might be able to order it through the library for you and get the library's discount which would maybe 10 to 35% off and occasional more

I called the other day in the evening and Tom answered. You were not there. He confirmed that you had received the thank you package and he had taken you and the projector to the Post Office where ever you sent it the week before. My bank statement showed you had cashed the check I sent to cover your expenses in the matter.

We'll be expecting the package next week. It took 2 weeks for the one tube of posters to arrive!

Ernest is now into an affair with Michael, a 28 year old law student at Marquette U. and I seldom see him this last 2 weeks. Michael's 23 year old black former live in lover, moved out and Ernest seems to be moving in. Leaving his clothes here however, When the clothes leave, Then well know it is more than a sex affair or infatuation. I'm frankly encouraging the thing as I've not had my house to myself in 1/2 a year. The upstairs tenants being here in the days has seemed to preclude any burglaries. Or perhaps it is the departure of my low low neighbors to the north that removed the criminal element. Besides Ernest has run up a $175 telephone bill and seems to be unwilling to pay it off. He is more interested in his ripping & running than basic economics of course, So I want him to pay up & get out of my way as his spending sprees are too costly for my income.

The near zero temp and below 0 wind chills have started winter very early and severely here. Did you get back to Milwaukee as you had talked of to help someone else move? Or is that still to happen or been cancelled? It is up to 40° today and just like the early spring days I went out without a cap and gloves. The bodily changes into winter have already happened!

I've been writing this at launchonrate 2 hrs from home. A couple of young nice looking guys here to keep my interest up. I may have a date coming over this afternoon too. And a date Thursday eve to see American Dance Machine show. So I'm working on my social/sexual life again, Where are you going to do the same? Get out of the house and get looking and get yourself seen. Love. Alyn
