Emmaus House, serving gay people in San Francisco, has announced the opening of an after-hours coffee house near Polk Street in the city.

Grand opening for the Last Chance Experience, 1488 Vallejo, will be Friday, December 10, at midnight.

The opening will follow a dance sponsored by Emmaus House beginning at 8pm at 2041 Larkin.

The dance will feature "Of Human Garbage," a drag show featuring Lilly Rose. There will be spaghetti and recorded music, and there will be a $1.50 donation.

The coffee house will be open Thursdays through Sundays from midnight to 4 a.m. It will have no cover charge, and advertises "coffee, tasties, raps, mello vibes and good people."
