

And thank for writing ^{about} gently ~~to~~ death & your process of living now in the face of death. At this time for you, it must be so special to appreciate life and living fully for today.

Please keep sending me your FIM newsletter. Is there a subscription cost?

I love "She Even Chased Tobacco." I don't know if I've mentioned it before, but I ~~didn't~~ ^{did} work out direct a national archive of lesbian history (the Westmountain Lesbian Library) and a few years ago I showed "She Even Chased Tobacco" in the library for women here. It meant so much to me to connect with ~~some~~ ^{the lives of} ~~some~~ ^{some} ~~collections~~ ^{collections} from the past, I put several of their stories in a packet I later wrote.

"Queen Christina" (grabs) and "Sylvia Scarlett" (Kleiman) are also great old movies with F to M themes. I'm glad you have the F to M group now.

~~It's~~ ^{It's} ~~so~~ ^{so} ~~important~~ ^{important}. Have you seen the other book "For With A Surge?" If not, I'll tell you about it.

Higgett.

Q I have a question for you, love. What do you think I have this long-standing feeling (most of my life) of being a woman's spirit + (married) soul inside a female body. Can this be a F to M TS feeling as well as a F to M TS feeling? Have you heard other F to M TS say this? In other words, do you think this feeling is exclusively a TS one?

Also, what do you think of the idea that there are TSs who won't even choose to transition via surgery/hormones but are really TSs anyway? (I know. I know. I and why I can say what I am myself, but your thoughts on this will interest me.)

And does it make sense that I, who identify as a TS only, have this distinct feeling ^{I can't} inside?

Q Right now it's being hard to find the right love. There are women who want to be with me but they're either not pretty enough for me, ^{get not into skin,} or too controlling or ^{not} otherwise not "her." I'm sad it's been so long ... I regret ... without. I keep looking and musing my eye for her. I'm just beginning to connect with a stripper who lives in SF! She answered ~~and~~ and I saw in on our beds (a book - the sex mag). She seems gorgeous & possibly right sexually. We'll see. I hope this isn't just a little-writer-fantasy thing.

What else is new? I'd like to have a hard-litten gang after a better position for me -- or a corporate ^{consulting} creative director in a Hartford insurance cooperative. It's the position I've been working 11 years to achieve.

I'll know more ^{about} my chances -

41 And it snowed here on Nov 10-12 for the first time this winter. 3 inches fell!
TSS only for 50 miles because snow?

42 In March, for my 38th birthday, I'm planning to ~~travel~~ visit SF for the first time! (I've never been West of the Mississippi).

Can I come visit you if you're up to it? My vacation will be between March 10 and March 21. Somewhere in the back of my mind I'm considering moving to SF because I tell myself I'd had more women in the scene to choose from & find a love among. (Though, if a person out in SF has to write to me in New York to connect, how satisfying can ^{SF} it be?).

There would be change & my in more for me that would take much planning, money & time. But for right now, I'll simply vacation & deal it out.

This letter's getting heavy ~~again~~. ^{To be expected from} Nothing new ^{to} a writer, especially writing on my favorite topics. I'm glad I know your Glad we're in each other's lives through these words, books & friends.
Love to visit.

43 Write to me soon.

To life, ~~to life~~

Bob Power

Answer