Notice...

Tickets are still available for the following Tuesday events: Lifestyle Options for the Senior CD; Lesbianism and Relationships Workshop; Quest for Femininity Workshop; and of course, the Fashion Show. Niela's Quest for Femininity Workshop costs $75.00; there is no charge to Fair participants for the other events.

There is still room in Speech II with Bud Heuer. Anyone interested please see Bud as soon as possible to schedule an individual session. Please know your other Fair commitments so you can schedule around them.

People who plan to attend Niela's Dream Workshop on Thursday: If you can recall a recent dream, please write it down and bring it with you to the workshop. (Note: non-dreamers should not feel excluded from this workshop. You can still participate and who knows? You might go home with a dream...) Tickets are still available for this workshop in the Fair office.

More Inside....

Billie Jean Blabs (and blabs and...)

All RIGHT!!! Hold on kids-- keep your arms and legs inside the ride at all times... HOT DISHY RUMORS!! Just what is Janis Walworth ?? The Ear That Never Hears heard a little voice or two say a genetic woman wouldn't wear silver tennis shoes to Ladies Night!! So... Janis must be a cross-dresser, right??? HEY!! she had men's socks on, too!! In fact I have it on good authority that she wears mens' UNDERWEAR!! Fabulous, isn't darlings? An FTM right here in our midst? Or not? Ask Janis!

A certain Fan Fair member was observed SNORING!!! Who was it? None other than... [Deleted]. And her nose hairs were VIBRATING!!

Oh-oh, one of our FanFair participants is actually NOT REGISTERED!! Would a certain Ms. A. Kane please report to security? (Right away, darling.)

QUESTION FOR THE DAY: Does Cosmetics I actually exist? If anyone thinks (or remembers) that they actually attended, please advise the FanFair office. [Gee, what a silly question-- see the kind of stuff I have to put up with??]

POLICE REPORT: Seems that one of the sound technicians left her handbag on top of her car while loading sound equipment. The poor dear then drove off and was stopped by the local POLICE. They advised her of her rights, informed her where her hanbag was... and complained that it didn't match her outfit!! Tacky, tacky, darling

CD PARTNERS WANTED!! Ever wanted a cross-dressing partner?? Try this: A workshop on how to... find a partner! Thursday October 24, 2 to 4pm; $10 a the door. Carriage House.

HOT FLASH!! Muriel Olive will hold a FREE seminar/session on femininity on Tuesday, Oct. 22 at Gifford House, 10 to 11:30am. Muriel will cover how to build a figure (first, ya start with a body and ya add parts?) Find out!

A good time was had by all at A-House the other night-- lotsa dancing and laughing with the locals on the 'ol wavy dance floor (a'slippin and a'slidin-- no need to drink, see?).

For those of you who missed this morning's Fashion & Beauty Program this morning, a lotta good information was traded around. A larger group could add more input, ya know. (Don't ya wanna be beautiful, darlings?)

Is everybody having fun yet?? Oh, by the way, a GREAT BIG Thank You to Scott Kennedy for loaning this equipment I'm abusing to produce some of this blather. And, to Janis for doing most of the real work-- THANKX, Hon!!

HELP WANTED: Leadership position available for Cross-Dressing support group that is inclusive of all gender-related persons. Must be an Inspirational, nurturing, honest person with integrity, sensitivity; able to work with a diverse and contentious group; must have excellent skills in delegating authority and supporting decisions that follow; Must be willing to risk failure. No pay. Apply at Gifford House-- Back Street, Tuesday October 22, 2 to 4pm.

AIDS Benefit

Hopefully, a new tradition will be established at Fantasia Fair this year. Over the years many "Gals of the Fair" have expressed the wish to show our appreciation to the Provincetown community for their warmth and sincere hospitality in providing a home for Fantasia Fair.

Well, here is your chance, Ladies! Over the week of the Fair there will be numerous opportunities through your donations and purchase of raffle tickets to say "Thank you, Provincetown." All the proceeds from our donations and the raffle will be donated to the Provincetown Aids Support Group (PASG).

PASG is a not-for-profit support and services agency for persons with AIDS/ARC. Their programs are funded solely through donations. PASG works in cooperation with the Provincetown Home Health Agency in providing a wide variety of services and aid to those in need.

Interestingly, PASG operates under a philosophy quite similar to that of Fantasia Fair. Both groups feel it is of utmost importance to establish a relationship with their participants that is a partnership seeking a dignified and enhanced quality of life.

As you heard at our Ladies' Night Banquet, we ask that each house have a donation box for PASG throughout the week so that gals can empty their loose change (and bills) as they return from their shopping sprees. Over the week, a dollar here and there, which most of us won't miss, will soon add up! The Gifford House Bar will also have a donation box.

The raffle will go on all week as well. As usual, our vendors at the Fair have been quite generous with their donations. Jim Bridges has donated a makeover and a free Cosmetic Workshop, Muriel Olive has donated a Silhouette Analysis, and Vernon has donated a $50 gift certificate. We're still working on a few more prizes. Tickets are $2 each or 6 for $10. Drawings for prizes will be at the Outreach Awards Banquet and during the Fantasy Ball.

We will present the proceeds to PASG at the Awards Banquet on Saturday night.

Ladies, this is a worthwhile cause and a great opportunity for each of us to say thank you to Provincetown. Let's show Provincetown we're for real!

Fashion Show ...

Tonight's event is one we all have been waiting for. It's Fashion Show time! This is the event all the clothes horses wait all year for.

You will see a spectrum of lovely ladies giving a great display of what ladies can do for clothes and what clothes can do for our ladies.

If you have not decided to participate, you still have time to get it together for the Fantasy Ball, or maybe get to help at the Follies.

WHAT SHOULD I WEAR FOR THE NEXT DISASTER?
