

Milwaukee

Thanks for your letter. I have an unbreakable view of my own body.
But my opinion isn't important and is yours.
Only there's is there one that counts. So on and let them love it if they want to. Glad you are joining the groups they can help give you the support to go on and break out into your desired life. I had to break into black all by my self. Now I'm a supporter of others.
You are such a great person. Let down your defenses and allow some warm into your life. Stop thinking of yourself as a freak. Assume your new role now.

The Milwaukee skyline is dramatically set against Lake Michigan in this spectacular night aerial. Milwaukee is becoming a center for tourism and conventions.

The rehearsals are all ended.
Put your show on the stage and let them applaud. Love you always. Alyn Hess
