Explore the feminine side of personality in a series of special workshops

Crossing the Lines of Gender

We all need a little help sometimes. Few tasks are more difficult than trying to change one's gender appearance, particularly without the use of hormones and/or surgery.

Crossing the Lines of Gender is a workshop aimed at the male-to-female crossdresser or transsexual who wishes to make a more realistic feminine gender presentation. Whether your goal is to "pass" as a female or simply improve your image, this workshop will help you accomplish your goals.

The seminars will include:

- Femininity: what is it? Can we achieve it? Explore the social construction of gender.
- Makeup application, including all the tricks and tips to feminize masculine features.
- Clothing styles and fashions to compliment your figure. Learn what styles will look best for you.
- Developing a more feminine voice. Simply raising pitch is not enough. Learn about inflection, rhythm, and feminine vocabulary.
- A very special workshop on feminine gracefulness; deportment. Learn how to walk, sit, stand and do almost anything else like a lady.
- The video workshop will benefit you after the workshop is over. Take your own video tape with you so you can practice what you learn in the privacy of your own home.
