

Dear Lou,

July 13th
1882

Thank-you so much for your well-written film review (with which I concur) and for your letter-to which I have received a counter response for publication in the August issue (response submitted by [redacted] who is "bi"). And, [redacted] has submitted for publication his personal profile, of a "gay-identified f-m man." (Do you know him as he is looking for like correspondents?) Write him care of Metamorphosis. Do you still see Emmon or your gay f-m friend

P.S. Please send a photo). 2

David? Please request the latter to write me for a complimentary copy of the newsletter. I would like to correspond with him (and with you, on a personal level).

I found your booklet for f-m men quite interesting and informative with the exception of the omission of Radclyffe Hall's "The Well Of Loneliness" - which I found to be the best f-m life story to date. I am currently in the process of writing my own. (I am "bi" myself but am monogamous and have been engaged to [redacted] for two years now.) Please write. Rupert
