Dear Ari,

We, of the 7th National Conference on Men and Masculinity, would like to thank you for your participation on our keynote panel, Men in Transition, moderated by Tom Cottle, on Friday evening June 12, 1981. The issues you will raise on androgyny will be of great interest to a number of men who will be attending the Conference.

Thank you again for your participation.
We look forward to seeing you at the Conference.

In Brotherhood

on Men and Masculinity

" . . . Men are taught competing and survival of the fit,
But a different world is coming, the torch is being lit.
Free to give and share our strength with each woman and each man,
We're not there, but it's not far, we can see it from where we stand. "

"Arm in arm, hand in hand, walkin' side by side,
Tearin' down the walls to look in each others eyes,
To find a place where it's okay for a different kind of friend,
A world we'll build together, with men supporting men. "

Welcome to the 7th National Conference on Men and Masculinity! We are eagerly awaiting your arrival on June 12th at Tufts University. As you know, this year's theme is Reweaving Masculinity. To do this we will be unraveling old masculine identities and reweaving our own attitudes, actions and images along non-sexist threads.

This year's program will feature 2 keynote panels, one on Men in Transition and one on The Men's Movement in the 80's. Workshops will be presented in the areas of Politics, Men and Culture, Relationships, Men's Roles, Men and Work, Men and Violence and Men and Feelings. Affinity groups will meet throughout the conference and city, state and regional organizing will be facilitated. In addition there will be evening cultural presentations and play activities and a morning of community celebration.

In this mailing we have included a list of travel coordinators, travel maps and directions, a fact sheet on accommodations and an outline of the preliminary schedule. We hope you will find these materials helpful. If you have any other questions between now and June 12th you may call (617) 247-1008 and you will be put in contact with the person best able to assist you.

On behalf of the conference Planning Committee,

Eric Johnson
